OUR RESTRUCTURING PROGRAMME

As part of our commitment to improve our communication, we want to keep you updated on our restructuring programme.

We invested and put into place a walk-in cold room and freezer to keep enough ingredients in hand to produce all year round. We also invested in a generator to mitigate the risk of stock damage due to electricity blackouts. We have paid as well the deposit of the new labeling machine that will help us improve the turn-around time and efficiency of our orders.

And the Oscar goes to...

Kumquat Atchar!

Our exotic Kumquat Atchar won the award for Best Import Product in November 2009, at the Fiery Foods UK National Chilli awards. We thank our distributor in the UK, Just Trading Scotland, for presenting our Atchar, that was recognized for a "wonderful fruity, spicy flavour with heat that was mild but warming and complimented the fruity zing."

...by the way...

Have you tried our triple-award winning Swazi Fire Chilli Sauce? (Be prepared for numb lips and watery eyes!)
